NEW ORIGINAL PBS DIGITAL STEM SERIES “WHAT’S GOOD” RELEASE SCHEDULE
JANUARY 8 - 13, 2018

Chicago – Jan. 5 2018 – Brand Programming Studios, a strategic and creative content studio, has teamed up with Shawn D. Price of 12th and Sac Films, a Chicago-based independent production company, to produce What’s Good.

A PBS digital series where inspiration and information meet the power of science, What’s Good introduces young parents, in under-served communities, to STEM via art and culture.

The 6-episode series launches across PBS’ entire digital network, Monday, January 8, 2018. Below, please find the release schedule for each 4-5 minute episode.
